Dear Ursula,

Thank you for your exceptional presentation at Women's Peer Connection Luncheon. Your passion and enthusiasm are contagious. Our members were motivated and inspired by your content. We are still talking about your strategies. I was personally inspired by your strategy to "know your numbers". Yesterday I created my quarterly goals, did the math, and broke them down to daily goals. I even created a stretch goal as you suggested. Knowing my numbers and breaking them down to daily goals gives me the confidence I need to reach my quarterly goals.

Thank you for being one of Women's Peer Connection's the best presenters.

Sincerely,

Jami McNees
